NBT BANK SUMMER CONCERT SERIES KICKS OFF JULY 3

Free Thursday Concerts Brought to Downtown Norwich by Chenango Blues Association

Norwich, N. Y. – (June 5, 2025) – The Chenango Blues Association is thrilled to announce that the free NBT Bank Summer Concert Series will jump start the 4th of July weekend this year with the first concert on Thursday, July 3! The series will once again bring nationally touring artists to East Park in downtown Norwich every Thursday from July 3 to August 28 for 7:00 p.m. shows.

“East Park in Norwich is the place to be every Thursday in July and August,” said Rachel Flanagan, Chenango Blues Association treasurer. “The shows are a great opportunity to gather friends and family to come downtown and enjoy world class music. And you can’t beat the price! The shows are free thanks to the longtime support of NBT Bank and generous local foundations that provide resources to make them possible. You couldn’t ask for better community partners!”

“The free summer concert series put on by the Chenango Blues Association is truly a highlight of the summer in Chenango County,” said NBT Bank CEO Scott Kingsley. “NBT Bank is proud to play a part in bringing amazing sounds to downtown Norwich as a way to say thank you to the community we’ve called home for nearly 170 years.”

This year’s NBT Bank Summer Concert Series lineup features a great mix of returning favorites and exciting new acts.

- July 3 – Buckwheat Zydeco, Jr. and the Ils Sont Partis Band brings a zydeco show that continues the legacy of his father. With two Grammy Awards to their credit, every show is guaranteed to be a good time!
- July 10 – The Record Company, a swaggering three-piece rock band with a foundation in early rock and roll and old blues masters, will deliver roots rock at its finest.
- July 17 – The Travelin’ McCourys, a returning favorite, will bring their innovative blend of traditional bluegrass and contemporary music styles. Stellar musicians, each band member has received an International Bluegrass Music Association Award.
- July 24 – John Brown’s Body is a legendary reggae band that formed in the mid 1990’s. They were one of only a handful of acts touring nationally at that time, and they helped carve a route for the major success of the big reggae acts that followed. Their early recordings reached #1 on the Billboard charts, and they went on to tour the world.
- July 31 – The California Honeydrops are an exciting new addition to the lineup. A mainstay at major festivals around the world, they are an electrifying retro-soul outfit that defy convention at every turn. Their shows navigate a vast repertoire of original songs and timeless classics with a commitment to improvisation that means no set list or show is ever the same.
- August 7 – The Garcia Project is always popular when they come to Norwich with their “days between” performance of recreated Jerry Garcia Band set lists. There may even be a surprise special guest!
- August 14 – Kick off Blues Fest weekend at this doubleheader show with an early 6:00 p.m. start! Brandon Santini, American roots rock and blues harmonica player and singer, will provide a strong start to the evening that will be capped off with a set from this year’s Traditional Blues Artist of the Year Sue Foley. Sue has won numerous awards for her guitar playing and her set at last year’s Chenango Blues Fest was a festival highlight.
- August 21 – The Outlaws will be another highlight of the summer series. Henry Paul honors the legacy beloved by longtime fans while forging new ground in the southern rock tradition. With their two-hour live shows, this band burns hotter than ever!
- August 28 – George Porter, Jr. and Runnin’ Pardners will light up the stage for the final show in the series. George is widely recognized as one of the greatest bassists of all time. A founding member of the Meters who pioneered New Orleans funk music, he has performed with a “who’s who” list of artists, including Dead and Company, Jimmy Buffett, Allen Toussaint and Tedeschi Trucks to name a few.

For further information on the Chenango Blues Association’s events, including the 32nd Chenango Blues Festival, visit the group’s website at: <http://www.chenangobluesfest.org/>

All shows are rain or shine. Organizers encourage everyone to come ready for the weather. The NBT Bank Summer Concert Series is for all ages. Admission is free, and there are food vendors onsite plus an adjacent beer garden. Plan to arrive early and enjoy a meal at one of Norwich’s many restaurants. For those traveling to the area, take advantage of room specials being offered by the Red Roof Inn and Fred’s Inn, and plan a visit to the Norwich Museum District the next day! ➡

ChenTAC

Chenango Threat Advisory Committee

WHO WE ARE

The formation of ChenTAC was established due to the ever-changing risks of targeted violence and mass shootings that society faces today. ChenTAC takes effective proactive and protective measures that are designed to prevent, not predict, potential acts of targeted violence and terrorism. Through identifying and managing potential threats, ChenTAC provides alternatives to investigation and/or prosecution for bystanders who are actively seeking intervention assistance with a known individual at risk of mobilizing to violence.

With the support of the Chenango County Sheriff's Office, ChenTAC is a multidisciplinary team comprised of businesses, schools and colleges, social service agencies, mental health professionals, faith based organizations, community resources and local and state law enforcement. Collectively, we convene as a confidential group to identify, assess and manage potential threats of targeted violence.

IMPORTANT DEFINITION

Targeted Violence is premeditated violence and is usually directed at a specific individual, group, or location. A perpetrator of targeted violence is typically responding to a perceived grievance or acting on behalf of a particular ideology. Targeted Violence is different from impulsive, reactive, or emotional acts of violence. Some examples of targeted violence are school shootings, workplace violence, domestic violence, stalking, and terroristic attacks.

WHEN TO CONTACT ChenTAC

If you become aware of someone exhibiting concerning behaviors, or threatening a person, group or entity, ChenTAC is available to help. Contact our report line at (607) 334-2000 or go to www.chenangocountyny.gov/271/ Sheriffs-Office and find the Submit A Crime tip button. If you have concerns of imminent danger, call 911 immediately.

See Something, Say Something

YOUR ROLE IS IMPORTANT

ChenTAC is relying on you, our biggest asset, to help identify potential threats. Without participation from members of the public, we can not identify ways to assist those who need us or protect our community.

Building Indigenous Partnerships:
Rogers Center and Onondaga Nation
Plant Three Sisters Garden

Photo Caption: Representatives from the Onondaga Nation, Oneida Indian Nation, Department of Environmental Conservation, Rogers Center, and Clear Path for Veterans stand by the newly planted Three Sisters Garden.

As the oldest environmental education center in New York State, Rogers Center recognizes the value of the traditional teachings of Indigenous neighbors and their deep history within the Central New York region.

On May 16th, Braiding the Sacred and the Onondaga Nation shared their culture and wisdom as they led the planting of corn, beans, and squash—The Three Sisters, sacred plants from the Haudenosaunee creation story—at Rogers Center.

The Indigenous Seed Stewards brought heritage seeds and, for the second year, the Three Sisters were planted at Rogers in mounds, honoring the four directions. This traditional method of planting ensures the corn, beans, and squash will support and reinforce each other’s growth. Representatives from the Oneida Indian Nation, Department of Environmental Conservation, Friends of Rogers, and Clear Path for Veterans all shared in the joy of learning and participating in the process of Rematriation—returning the sacred seeds to their mother communities.

The Three Sisters Garden at Rogers Center is surrounded by native wildflower plots that were prepared by members of the public during the Seeds of Community wildflower planting on April 26th, during the Rogers Center Earth Day celebration. The six plots, where 50 varieties of native wildflowers are beginning to sprout, were created to honor the Six Nations of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy.

“We’re honored these heritage seeds have found their home in the soil here at Rogers,” said Aariah Mitchell, Education and Communications Associate for Friends of Rogers. Rogers Center is located on the unceded traditional lands of the Oneida Indian Nation, People of the Upright Stone, as a part of the larger Haudenosaunee Confederacy. “We have so much gratitude for the Indigenous women who brought their bountiful knowledge, outstanding energy, and sacred seeds to this place,” said Mitchell.

As their partnerships with the Shako:wi Cultural Center and Braiding the Sacred build, Friends of Rogers is committed to developing a living land acknowledgment through the continued integration of Indigenous food knowledge and agricultural practices.

The mission of the Friends of Rogers is to provide outstanding educational opportunities that excite, inspire, and motivate people of all ages to enjoy, understand, appreciate, and protect our natural environment. ➡

Houseplant Tip

It's important to watch houseplants closely. According to gardenguides.com, an online gardening resource, you should inspect plants regularly for yellowing or discolored leaves. This condition is usually caused by overwatering, but can also be the result of insects. Deformed plants and sticky deposits on leaves and stems can be caused by insects as well.
